A Note from Pastor Phillips:

Thank you for coming to worship with us today. If you are first-time visitor, I would sure like the opportunity to meet you and welcome you personally. Because I believe in a Sovereign God, I don't believe anything happens by chance. I believe you were brought here today for a purpose. I would love to help you discover that purpose, and to see if there is any way we as a church can bless and minister to you and your family. Please stop by the Resource Center after the service so I can shake your hand. I'd sure count it a privilege.

Celebrate Recovery is a Christ-centered program with foundations firmly established in Biblical truth. The 12 Steps with accompanying Scriptures and the 8 Principles based on the Beatitudes offer participants a clear path of salvation and discipleship; bringing hope, freedom, sobriety, healing, and the opportunity to give back one day at a time through our one and only true Higher Power, Jesus Christ. The 12 Steps and the 8 Principles work seamlessly together, tying historical recovery to timeless Biblical teaching. The 3rd Tuesday of every month, we will also provide a meal for the attendees at 6:30 p.m.

PINEWOOD DERBY

We will be holding the Pinewood Derby Saturday, March 30. Breakfast and check-in begin at 8:00 a.m. All cars MUST be checked in no later than 9:00 a.m. to be eligible to race.

We will have Bible quizzing at the race, and have given your children with study sheets in Awana. If they missed Awana last week, have them ask for a study sheet.

Car kits are available for purchase in the Resource Center.

ANNIE ARMSTRONG

In the late 1800's women were not expected to be leaders, to speak up, to be visionaries... But Annie Armstrong was never concerned with what the world expected.

Born in Baltimore in 1850, Annie's father died when she was an infant. Her mother, a devoted Christian, encouraged her five children to see the needs around them and to act.

With fervency, Annie dedicated her life to sharing Christ through compassion ministry to orphans and the poor. Her boldness soon helped ignite a missions movement.

Annie and the women of her church began a "Missionary Union" with other churches to unite in missions work. This effort spread to the state level. Despite opposition to women organizing by male SBC leadership, the national Woman's Missionary Union (WMU) was formed in 1888. Churches across the U.S. were now linked in their missions' efforts with Annie as the first executive leader.

Traveling throughout the United States and frontier, Annie encouraged missionaries and challenged churches. She rallied women to pray, give to the missions' offerings and teach their children to do the same. She was a fierce advocate for the needs of immigrants, Native Americans and was instrumental in the appointment of the first black female missionaries.

Annie often toiled long into the night writing to pastors and SBC leaders. In one year alone she hand-wrote 18,000 letters. She sacrificially refused a salary expressing she would, "never give to the Lord that which costs me nothing."

Today, over one billion dollars has been raised through the offering renamed in Annie's honor in 1934. All gifts to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering* for North American Missions—100 percent—supports more than 5,000 missionaries in church planting and compassion ministries across the U.S. and Canada.

This year's week of prayer takes place Sunday, March 3 through Saturday, March 9. Brochures will be available in the lobby at the Welcome Center. Designated giving envelopes will be available in the pews and at the Welcome Center. Thank you for supporting missionaries in North America!

Our public servants and first responders are facing more dangerous and uncertain times in their occupations these days. While we watch the news and shake our heads at the senseless acts of those who seemingly care only about making headlines, our men and women are out there on the front lines, putting themselves between us and danger.

Please pray for those in our church and church family members who are serving as police officers, firefighters and emergency medical technicians. To add a name to this prayer list, please call the office so we can support him/her in prayer. Thank you.

We are excited and looking forward to having Josh McDowell with us on Saturday, March 23, 2019.

Because the dynamics of the home have become more complicated than ever, the phrase, “traditional home,” can mean a variety of different things to many people, generating even more complexity in how we point our children to the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Josh will be teaching about the dynamics of parenting and grand-parenting and how we can best lead our children to Christ. Teachers will also benefit greatly from this event, also gaining wisdom from Josh’s experiences.

Pre-purchase of tickets through March 17 will guarantee that your lunch will be included. Additional lunches will be purchased for later registrants until sold out. Tickets are available for $20 per person through February 28. Group tickets are available as follows: for every group of 10 tickets sold, the 11th is free. As of March 1, tickets will be $25 each. Group discounts will still be available at $25 each for 10 tickets, with the 11th ticket free.

Doors will open at 8:00 AM.

For tickets, go to www.pvbchurch.tix.com and follow the link specified for Josh McDowell tickets.

LIMITED CHILDCARE will be available for registered children 10 and under for those in our church family who have no access to a babysitter. The fee for childcare is $10 per child (household maximum of $25). Children MUST be registered no later than Monday, March 4 if you need childcare, and the fee must be paid at the time of registration. Lunch (pizza), beverages and snacks will be provided for the children.
